Judging Criteria: All entries that meet the Eligible Criteria set forth above shall be judged by a Sponsor/Administrator-appointed panel of judges pursuant to the following guidelines, requirements, percentages and criteria (collectively, the "Judging Criteria") in the determination of a nominated Festival as a finalist:

- Best Fest (50%): Eligible Nominator's description of why their local hometown festival or event is the "Best Fest" including submissions and associated Festivals that are deemed to be the best at promoting or fostering civic pride and unite local residents, along with any determination of the festival or event as being original, unique and creative;

In the event of a tie, the tied entry with the highest score in the Best-Fest criteria will be deemed the winning entry from among all tying entries. If the tied entries are still tied, the tied entry with the highest score in the Benefit to Festival criteria will be deemed the winning entry from among all tying entries. That alternate may be notified as per the procedures outlined above (time permitting). Note: Sponsor is not responsible for any Eligible Nominator or associated Finalist Festival organizing committee that does not respond within the required deadline for any reason, including but not limited to failure to check any notification or email account settings that prevent notification or receipt of email delivery.

That alternate may be notified as per the procedures outlined above.
